NPS HSR INTER-SCHOOL

CHESS TOURNAMENT

National Public School, HSR Layout was very proud to present its maiden Inter-school Chess Tournament.

The event was a grand success with participants pouring into the school in large numbers. The event spanned over two days- Friday, November 18th and Saturday, November 19th 2022. it was a breath taking scene to see all the 500 children playing simultaneously in pin drop silence. they were FOCUSED, attentive and playing for the spirit of the game. The organisers were constantly on their toes.

There were applications from over 15 schools across Bengaluru and Mysuru. Some of the schools that participated were Sri Kumarans Childrens Home, Vidyashilp Academy, Greenwood High- Sarjapur Road, NPS HSR, NPS Koramangala, NPS Rajajinagar, NPS Mysore, Silicon City Academy for Secondary Education, GEAR Innovative International School and The International School Bangalore(TISB).

Mr. Sushrutha Reddy, winner of the Millionaire Chess Tournament in 2014, supervised the tournament. There were many categories for playing according to age like Under 7,9,11,13 and 16. Selections were taken and students were categorized in a category. The atmosphere was tense. In both boys and girls overall, Greenwood High emerged champions and NPS HSR were runners-up.

IF I WERE A LEADER

If I were a leader there'd be no hue and cry
I'd just do my job well which is easy as pie.

There are too many fights with neighbouring lands.
just for a little territory
Why not instead just hold hands
the borders are fine! just stick to peace!

There's also the problem that some people are less privileged than others, and capitalism is blamed
But with just a little aid from the wealthy the beast of poverty will have been tamed

We all know we must do only good things and know what's wrong and right
So, everyone shall be taught to do only good and there won't be any thieves to fear at night.

Grown-ups use so many fancy words like "democracy" and "politics" but fixing all the problems in the world doesn't require vocabulary so complex and some issues are little known through radio and T.V only talked about by children like me.

We need fewer exams and more fun activities child friendly syllabus and more P.E.s I feel solving all these problems does not require a lot of IQ.

if I could run the nation that's precisely what I'd do.

EARTH AS OUR REFUGE

The earth, our planet, is nearly 4.5 billion years old and yet it still stands, as good as gold

However, this longevity is now threatened scientists have recently reckoned

That the plastics we use and the gases we burn may cause the fate of the world to take a bad turn

So let us join hands for the betterment of earth and fight with whatever we are worth

Let's recycle plastics and stop burning the gases and let's spread this message to the masses

Let's make our world a beautiful place for the generations to come and together, all odds, we will overcome!

Celestial Objects

- November 4-

On November 4, Friday, the moon hovers near the giant planet, Jupiter

TAURIDS METEOR SHOWERS

While not always the flashiest, the currently active Southern Taurids reached its peak on Nov. 4 to Nov. 5, displaying its dim but still impressionable fireballs. According to NASA, the spectacle is created when the dust of the comet Encke hits the Earth's atmosphere and heats up.

- November 8-

A complete lunar eclipse was seen on November 8.

This lunar eclipse was seen a fortnight after the partial solar eclipse.

- November 9-

Uranus known as the "Ice Giant" planet and famous for its cold atmosphere and many moons, reached opposition this month, allowing for anyone with a pair of binoculars to catch a glimpse of the seventh planet from the sun. On Nov. 9, Uranus will lie opposite to the sun, meaning once the sun sets the planet will rise and shine at its brightest and be seen at its largest.

- November 11-

On November 11, the Moon was seen stationed directly between Mars and the star Elnath. Elnath is the second brightest star in the constellation Taurus after Aldebaran.

The Joys of November

The month before the world turns white,
 The time we spent together
 With our families in candle light,
 Its the month of november!
 Rajyotsava and childrens day,
 Those holidays are here
 Then there comes thanksgiving day,
 Which brings out holdiaiy cheer!
 Soon after thanksgiving, november will die,
 Goodbye to autumn season,
 So long coloured leaves and apple pie
 The joy we felt is unreason!
